

Frames, Keepsake

Maybe its all we cant take I'm keeping this as a keepsake keeps us always returning and everything else I'm burning keeps you always regretting and maybe its cause you cant wait

and everything else forgetting when were down, down, down, can we run away.

all the way and maybe it cause I cant say and maybe its cause you cant say ill give you this as a keepsake keeps you always believing keeps me always believing and right after that I'm leaving

and maybe its all we cant take
and everything else I'm burning..

I cant sleep..

they're hunting me down like an insect crushing me down like an insect chasing me down like an insect stamping me out like an insect running me down like an insect
