

Frameshift, Your Eyes

Down where it's deep your thoughts are complete
All you need is a light
This will lead us unsparingly
Toward theories that cut like a knife

And the sun as it sets
Does not go unnoticed
It makes me wonder
How I can focus on

(Your eyes) Light up the room
(Your eyes) My attention consume
(Your eyes) Don't blink too soon
Your eyes, your eyes

Without that invention I would not be here
Half an eye for me is perfectly clear
So that I find you wherever you are
I am not blind, I just can't see far

And as the sun sets
I will not regret
If I keep on moving
I won't forget

(Your eyes) Light up the room
(Your eyes) My attention consume
(Your eyes) Don't blink too soon
Your eyes, your eyes

Each one lashes out at me
I'm drowning in a deep green sea
I will swim for eternity
Maybe someday I will see more clearly

(Your eyes) Light up the room
(Your eyes) My attention consume
(Your eyes) Don't blink too soon

(Your eyes) Light up the room
(Your eyes) My attention consume
(Your eyes) Don't blink too soon

(Your eyes) Light up the room
(Your eyes) My attention consume
(Your eyes) Don't blink too soon
Your eyes, mmm
