

Frank Bakken, White Lies

So many lies I've told
White lies, white lies
Tiny lies to make you feel good
Never meant to make you sad
So sad, so sad
All I did was out of foolish pride

I am fooling my self
That's right
I am fooling my self
Ok
I am fooling my self
That's right man
I am fooling my self

I don't want to lie again
Cause to hearts can be one tonight
Please give me one more chance
I will never cheat again

Foolish things we do sometimes
So foolish, so foolish
How can we ever trust each other?
Don't want to break your heart
Don't want to, don't want to
I keep my secrets in my own heart

I am fooling my self
That's right
I am fooling my self
Ok
I am fooling my self
That's right man
I am fooling my self

I don't want to lie again
Cause to hearts can be one tonight
Please give me one more chance
I will never cheat again
