

Frank Black, King Queen Of Siam

Ah, ah

I love the north part
I love your marble ear
Your eyes are blues, ooh
Well, I tried to leave me but I could not stay away

I love the south part
I love the temperature, sure
I want to play with you
Like a man from Texas, well I sure can play

Incarnation
I would love you
Resurrection, too
I would love you
Well, I do do do do

I had a good start
Under the king and queen of Siam
It was a royal rule
Just to make sweet love just all the time

Now here's the hard part
The really hard part, huh
I don't know what to do
'Cause a mountain of forever is too high too climb

Incarnation
I would love you
Resurrection, too
I would love you
Well, I do do do do

Ah, ah
