

Frank Duval, Face To Face

Movement surrounds me - mysteries.□

Movement surrounds me.

Face

face to face

With a stranger in myself

And his grip on my soul.

Face

face to face

With the force he occupies

All my thoughts and my whole life.□

He wants me to fail.□

He attracts me and he charms me

He excites me and he calms me

Makes me freezing and he warms me

But someone is trying to warn me.

Face

face to face - I'll show myself and I will fight

I'll drive him out of my life.

Face

face to face - with the power of my thoughts

I'll defeat his magic force.

Movement surrounds me - mysteries.

Face

face to face - I've destroyed his work on me

I feel strong again and free.
