

Frank Duval, Living Like A Cry

Living like a cry
living just to die

Living - what does it mean? - Living.
Never caring what they say
what they think about my way.
Never asking what will be tomorrow or another day.

Living like a cry
living just to die.
Living like a cry
living just to die

Living
that can be a smile
carrying me just for a while.
A hand to hold me
a dream to guide me.

Living like a cry
living just to die
living means rising.

Living like a cry
living just to die.
Living like a cry
living just to die

Living
that can be a smile
crying me just for a while. . . .
