

Frank Sinatra, It's All So New To Me

(back-up)

It's all so new to me to have you care,

A lifetime of romance and joy that we can share.

It's all so new to me, I can't believe

That this is love that lasts, enchanting and unsurpassed.

Sapphire skies of blue and nights alone with you,

The sun shines through the darkest day, and finds us happy, oh so gay.

It's all so new to me, it's such a thrill,

To know that you belong to me and always will.

(It's all so new to me to have you care)

(Makes a lifetime of romance and joy that we can share)

(It's all so new to me, I can't believe)

(Oh that this is love at last, enchanting, and unsurpassed)

Sapphire skies of blue and nights alone with you,

The sunshine through the darkest day and finds us happy, oh so gay, and always will.
