

Frankenbok, Dunce With Denial

Got to take the cause of the flaw and attempt to remedy it. It's best you take this fall on your own. I can not pretend to be lord to man or anti-judicial...

Just hang your fate and abort...

Once in a little while while you'll feel dunce for the little miles you stroll, and dunce for everything that you can't mould...
(makes no or little difference to those...)

To feel is flaw?

Got to take the cause of the flaw and attempt to remedy it. Yes I fear the grain and anti-properacy. I have all along.

Bless me with the vision that I want to be...

Dunce with denial...
