

Frankie J, Won't Change

i was young, i was dumb didn't know what i was thinkin use to think that i could rule the world that's the way...i be livin fast cars always shoppin at the malls never caring for your heart, always with my friend yeah

till you came along
and opened up my eyes
you asked me what was going on seemed that something had changed inside ..oh my
said that i was trippen
and slowly i was slippin
in another bad situation
and i said to myself
i dont wanna go that route

cuz i ont wanna loose you babe you know that im still down i dont't wanna lose you babe just keep me on the ground i don't wanna lose you babe you know that i wont change cause for you i'd do anything and everything you know that i won't change a thang you're my moon,you're my sun you're my stars, you are my every thang and i'm sorry if i haven't made you feel that way...ok.. i've been a fool,i know it's true and i've gotta make it..up to you babe.. i gotta show you that i still acknowledge you..

till you came along
you asked me what was going on
seemed that something had changed inside ..oh my
and i said to myself

cause for you i'd do anything and everything

ooh...
i love you more than anythang
ooh..
for you i just won't change a thang ooooh... girl you know i'm still the same... cuz i'll always be there for you... and you'll always be there for me... yeah...oh yeah...

and i said to myself

you know that i won't change babe...

you know that i wont change
cause for you i'd do anything and everything

yeah... let's go from the start of it all you were there with me before the range and the benz beore enerything uh... member nights, no lights, no food on the stove, just me, just you and a baby to hold...whooh and now you sayin me and you that we strayed away and that haven't been the same since the money came nut the money means nothing if i don't have you..uh..uh to support and back me in everything that i do cuz if you ain't there then why am i here...tell her please understand that i care..uh....

you know that i wont change
cause for you i'd do anything and everything

cause for you i'd do anything and everything
