

Franklin Daniel, Heaven Lasts Forever

Now that I'm a man, I understand I need someone to share this wonderland together

A woman and a man should find romance so come on take my hand we'll learn to dance together

There's magic in the air tonight, The moonlit stars are burning bright.

Your face glows by the candlelight. It's all because tonight's the night.

We can begin to live the dream, The dream that's meant for you and me.

Until death do us part, And even then I hope our heaven lasts forever.

In good times and in bad times too, I know that we can make it through.

As one united we'll be strong, Because together we belong.

If I could sing to you a song, I'd sing of love that won't go wrong.

Imagine me and you, I do I think about you day and night

To think about the girl you love And hold her tight

I can't see me loving nobody but you For all my life

When you're with me Baby the skies will be blue
