

Franklin Daniel, Love Can Last A Lifetime

I believe that love can last a lifetime
And that the heart can tell when love is real
I believe in daring to take chances
And coming out and saying what I feel.
I believe in passionate embraces,
In promises and lingering good-byes,
In all the sweet, unspoken possibilities,
I see each time I look into your eyes.
I believe in holding onto happiness,
In doing what my heart tells me to do
I believe that love can last a lifetime...
And I want to spend that lifetime loving you.
Ever since the day I fell in love with you,
Loved you more and more each time I saw you,
My only wish is for you to realise,
That you're the only one on my mind.
Early in the morning when the birds sing,
I think about the sweet voice that I miss,
I'll never forget how you changed me,
You made me see the things I couldn't see.
I believe in holding onto happiness,
In doing what my heart tells me to do
I believe that love can last a lifetime...
And I want to spend that lifetime loving you.
You make me feel like I am in heaven now
I'll find the love you have for me somehow
