

Franky Perez, Beautiful Mista

Headlights shining on a fence
Two kids holding hands
In my Daddy's car
Clothes lyin' on the floor
Lennon on the radio
Singin' songs for the lonely hearts
That is what we are

I wanna lay you down
Go places we ain't yet found
I wanna hold you tonight
We may not get things right
But we'll make beautiful mistakes
Beautiful mistakes

Headlights shining on a fence
Two kids holding hands
In my Daddy's car
Moonlight bouncing off our skin
We're young and innocent
Some say we've gone too far
Tell that to our hearts

I wanna lay you down
Go places we ain't yet found
I wanna hold you tonight
We may not get things right
But we'll make beautiful mistakes
Beautiful mistakes

I wanna lay you down
Go places we ain't yet found
I wanna hold you tonight
We may not get things right

I wanna lay you down
Go places we ain't yet found
I wanna hold you tonight
We may not get things right
We'll make beautiful mistakes
Beautiful mistakes
