Franky Perez, If I Could Read My Woman's Mind

if i could read my woman's mind i'd be the envy of all men cause when she said she needed time i'd know exactly what she meant

Chorus:
but dont keep me 'round
when you want me to leave
dont keep me 'round
but you're gonna miss me

would i like what i see there is a chance i could go blind from the secrets that she keeps

out of sympathy
dont keep me 'round
out of jealousy
don't keep me 'round
but you're gonna miss me me

out of sympathy
dont keep me 'round
out of jealousy
you're gonna miss me
