

Franz Ferdinand, Love & Destroy

I'm so free I could lacerate
Rip the robes right off my chest
I fly high above the Muscovites' sky
I'm going to rip, rip, I'll never rest
I'm going to meet you at midnight
I'm not used to living alone
I have to learn how to live or I'll die

Margarita - Love and Destroy

I'm so free as I meet you
Welcoming black, the Queen of the ball
It's dark beneath the Muscovites' sky
But you give; you give me it all
I'm here with you at midnight
I forget about living alone
As I learn how to live and to die

Margarita - Love and Destroy
