

Fray, Trust Me

Looking for something I've never seen Alone and I'm in between The place that I'm from and the place that I'm in A city I never been
I found a friend or should I say a foe
Said there's a few things you should know
We don't want you to see we come and we go
Here today, gone tomorrow

We're only taking turns
Holding this world
It's how it's always been
When you're older you will understand

If I say who I know it just goes to show
You need me less that I need you But take it from me we don't give sympathy
You can trust me trust nobody
But I said you and me
we don't have honesty

The things we don't want to speak
I'll try to get out but I never will Traffic is perfectly still

We're only taking turns
Holding this world
It's how it's always been
When you're older you will understand

And then again maybe you don't
And then again maybe you won't

We're only taking turns
Holding this world
It's how it's always been
When you're older you will understand

When you're older
you might understand

When you're older
you might understand