Freak Kitchen, Appetizer

Everyone looks at her She only looks at me The waiter introduces us to each other This woman's a delicacy

My eyes lick her body She smells oh so nice I wanna eat her all up A taste of paradise

Appetize, Appetize, Appetizer

I am a simple man And I've got simple needs I'm starving to see what she's hiding inside Hungry for her dirty deeds

A one way conversation Her eyes say it all We both know what we want tonight I feel my stomach call

Appetize, Appetize, Appetize, Appetizer
