

fred neil, Handful Of Gimme

You waltz in here

With a handful of gimme

A mouthful of much obliged

I go home feeling empty

From all you signify

I'd spend the last of my last ten cents

On a nickel bag of candy

And if I had just ten more cents

I think I would take a ride

On the Staten Island ferry

You waltz in here with a handful of gimme

A mouthful of sweet lovin' lies

I go limpin' home feelin' empty

Tears all in my eyes

I'd spend the last of my last ten cents

On a nickel bag of candy

And if I had just ten more cents

I think I'd take a ride

On the Staten Island ferry

Your waltz in here

With a handful of gimme

A mouthful of much obliged

From all you signify
