

Freddie Hart, Can I Still Come Home

If love hasn't died if I'm not to blame
And things there at home still be right
If I still have choice of where I want to go
Can I still come home to you tonight

Do you still wear my ring am I still on your mind
Do you still dream of holding me tight
Only you can say so darling let me know
Can I still come home to you tonight

Should I hang up the phone and just leave you alone
If I keep on moving on would that be right
Only you can say so darling let me know
Can I still come home to you tonight
Can I still come home to you tonight
