

Freddie Hart, I'm A Big Hurt Now

I can't lie as little tears just falling now and then
But gradually as time went by a heartache began
Then after that it wasn't I learned to cry out loud
And now at last it's come to past I'm a big hurt now

Oh yes at last I'm fully grown but looking back I see
Each cheating heart that played a part in giving birth to me
Thanks everyone for all you've done you even take a vow
I hope you're proud of your creation I'm a big hurt now
