

Freddie Hart, I'm Afraid To Love You

I'm afraid to love you afraid I might like it
I'm afraid to hold you afraid I might like it
For when your lips invite me to steal a kiss or two
I'm tempted but oh but I never fallow through

I'm afraid you'll thrill me thrill me then leave me
Oh what's another broken heart to you
If I act just like a stranger it's because I see the danger
I'm afraid to love you but I'm afraid I do
So if I act just like a stranger..
