Freddie Hart, I'm Afraid To Love You

I'm afraid to love you afraid I might like it I'm afraid to hold you afraid I might like it For when your lips invite me to steal a kiss or two I'm tempted but oh but I never fallow through

I'm afraid you'll thrill me thrill me then leave me Oh what's another broken heart to you If I act just like a stranger it's because I see the danger I'm afraid to love you but I'm afraid I do So if I act just like a stranger..
