

Freddie Hart, Love Makes The Difference

Love makes all the difference in the world

I was drowned in a world full of emptiness
I was bored to death with life because of loneliness
Happiness for me seemed all in vain
But love reached out her hand when I was going down the drain

I kissed her hungry lips and they turned me on
A flavor like no other lips I've ever known
Heaven opened up the door and there she was
And she was much much more than I've been dreaming of

Love makes the difference all the difference in the world
Love's the ray of sunshine the blessing from above
And I've thought the girl was just another girl
But love makes all the difference in the world
