

Freddie Hart, That Hurtin' Feeling

(I feel that hurtin' feeling settin' in)
For a while I thought I was really over you
Even though that I might find somebody new
Then today when I saw you again
Well I felt that hurtin' feeling settin' in

It's hard to my heart and right to my eyes it goes
And before too long my tears began to show
My knees grow weak my head begins to spin
When I feel that hurtin' feeling settin' in [steel]

Well I thought that I forgotten you today
Like a crazy fool I threw your letters away
And I look like a fool digging in this garbage can Cause I felt that hurtin' feeling settin' in Well it's hard to my heart...
Yes I feel that hurtin' feeling settin' in
