

Freddie Hart, That's Not Like Me

I'm begging you to come back home and that's not like me
Yes I'm admitting I was wrong that's not like me
To make you leave was so unwise I love you now I realize
So I come to a paradise and that's not like me

Never knew how much I loved you until you went away
I never thought the man could hurt the way I hurt today

I'm begging you please come back home that's not like me
Yes I'm admitting I was wrong that's not like me
To make you leave was so unwise I love you now I realize
And these are teardrops in my eyes and that's not like me
That's not like me
