

Freddie Hart, Why Should I Cry Over You

Why should I cry over you you've never cried over me
You want to take without giving that's why we both disagree
You called our dream world a prison oh but from now on you'll be free
Why should I cry over you you've never cried over me

(You called our dream world a prison but from now on you'll be free)
Oh why should I cry over you you've never cried over me
