

Freddie Hart, You Belong To Me

If I stood up I could reach up and touch heaven
That's how I feel cause you belong to me

Yes I'm bragging for I've got something to brag about
Just look at you you precious loving thing
I know it's true but I just can't believe it
I thought girls like you were only found in dreams
If you'd thrill me more my heart just couldn't stand it
I know now just how blessed a man can be
If I stood up...

When I hold you girl I hold my world here in my arms
And you're all there is as far as I can see
If I stood up...
That's how I feel cause you belong to me
