

Free, Heavy Load

just a young man
by an old road
by the route he chose
an ancient song
old tongue
for this man
was sung

oh i'm carrying a, heavy load can't go no further down it's a, long road it's a heavy load (oh a heavy load)

by a bright stream
came an old dream
things are never what they always seem and so he went on travelling on
now he's a long way from home
