

Freestylers, In Love With You

I'm in love with you,
I know I saw you yesterday,
But there's so much I want to say,
Can't seem to shake off feeling strange,
All my emotions rearranged,
I'm twisted up inside,
You give me butterflies,
There's something in your eyes and now I know that

I'm in love with you, in love with you, in love with you
I'm in love with you, in love with you, in love with you

I can't remember what I said,
Too many thoughts went through my head,
If I believe this love is real,
I should show you how I feel,
I'm twisted up inside,
You give me butterflies,
There's something in your eyes and now I know that

I'm in love with you, in love with you, in love with you
I'm in love with you, in love with you, in love with you
