

Freezpop, Do You Like My Wang?

you whisper in my ear, it's time to go i grabbed you by the hand and wouldnt let it go you wanna see it, and know the truth but you hesitate a moment so your advances dont seem uncouth your breath is hottt, caresses slow my heart begins to race, i cannot let it show you've heard about it, the rumor's true it's 2 by 2 by 3 feet and it's on the desk in front of you do you like my wang?

you know you want to use it
do you like my wang?
please be gentle, dont abuse it
do you like my wang?
i took it out for you to see
do you like my wang?
8bit plastic love machine

your train of thought derailed, nothing to say you cant believe i've kept this secret locked away you wanna touch it, and turn it on so i quote you sexxy lyrics from a classic 80's journey song burning desire, feeding the fire i've sunk to new lows lyrically and things are dire but you dont care, and make your move i can see you're blushing madly and your swooning means that you approve

do you like my wang?
you know you want to use it
do you like my wang?
please be gentle, dont abuse it
do you like my wang?
i took it out for you to see
do you like my wang?

your touch is soft, you aim to please you trace your fingers over worn qwerty keys with tenderness, i touch your face you look distracted while i hunger for your warm embrace you've waited long enough, i cant say no who am i to stop the infomation flow the data flickers across the amber screen my very own electric 8bit plastic love machine

do you like my wang?
you know you want to use it
do you like my wang?
please be gentle, dont abuse it
do you like my wang?
do you like my wang?
