Frehley's Comet, Looser In A Fight

He's got a holster Filled up with grief I wouldn't wanna cross his line I'd end up underneath (He's) got an angry look of action Shoot off both your knees His gun was smokin Recently pleased

You don't wanna cross wits Better not try You couldn't learn his limits And you don't have the mind

Loser in a fight Loser in a fight Better learn to run Your winnin days are done

He's a thinker you can see it Sometimes the eyes don't lie And if your head is empty He'll make your body die I don't need his aggravation I'm better than the rest Better shut up or stand up (Cuz) soon will come the test

You don't wanna cross wits Better not try You couldn't learn his limits And you don't have the mind

Loser in a fight Loser in a fight Better learn to run Your winnin days are done

This would be the one guy to ignore If you wanna save your face From hitting the floor So now would be the right time!!!
