

Frehley's Comet, Lost In Limbo

The party's over in the morning light
My head is spinning lost my appetite
Barking dog much too loud
Chuck him a bone and get me out of this town

Voices I hear I can't explain
Those neon lights they hurt my brain
Feeling no pain my body's numb
From Hell's kitchen to Kingdom Come

Not feeling happy not feeling sad
Not feeling anything good or bad
I'm not in Heaven I'm not in Hell
This must be limbo now can't you tell

Not feeling happy not feeling sad
Not feeling anything good or bad
I'm not in Heaven I'm not in Hell
This must be limbo now can't you tell

Lost in limbo we're just lost
Lost in limbo Baby we're just lost
Lost in limbo with nowher to go

The morning after is such a bore
Can't even focus on the kitchen floor
Telephone please don't ring
Wanna forget about everything
