

Freiheit, Diana

Long ago and in my mind
I can see your face lonely and lost in time
Ooh
You are gone like yesteryear
But the memories never will disappear
I think of you
I think of you

Yes, it's true, I can't pretend
That the time could heal the taste of the bitter end
Ooh
Yes, it's hard to understand
Why we come and go like circles upon the sand
I think of you

Diana
I know you're here
I close my eyes and see your face
That's all I have to do
To be with you
Diana
I know you're here
Although I cannot touch your face
I know what I can do
To be with you
Diana
I know you're here
I close my eyes and see your face
That's all I have to do
To be with you

Long ago, so far away
Still the afterglow is living with me today
Ooh
You are gone like yesteryear
But the memories never will disappear
I think of you

Diana
I know you're here
I close my eyes and see your face
That's all I have to do
To be with you
Diana
I know you're here
Although I cannot touch your face
I know what I can do
To be with you
To be with you
To be with you

Diana
I know you're here
I close my eyes and see your face
That's all I have to do
To be with you
Diana
I know you're here
Although I cannot touch your face
I know what I can do
To be with you
Diana
I know you're here
I close my eyes and see your face

That's all I have to do
To be with you
