

Freiheit, Kissed You In The Rain

I saw you walking
Girl you looked so good it hurt
Here and everywhere
Then I lost you on the street
I heard you talking
Girl you knew that I was there
Here and everywhere
And you must have felt the heat

It's still a mystery to me
How I could meet my destiny

The sound of thunder in the night
We stood alone electrified
And I took your hand and kissed you in the rain

In the rain
I kissed you in the rain
In the rain
I kissed you in the rain
(Rain, rain, rain)

You're so entrancing
In every way a girl can be
Here and everywhere
In everything you say and do
I see you dancing
And your body talks to me
Here and everywhere
I love the language that is you

It's still a mystery to me
How I could meet my destiny

The sound of thunder in the night
We stood alone electrified
And I took your hand and kissed you in the rain

In the rain
I kissed you in the rain
In the rain
I kissed you in the rain
(Rain, rain, rain)

In the rain
I kissed you in the rain
(The sound of thunder in the night)
In the rain
(We stood alone electrified)
I kissed you in the rain
(The sound of thunder in the night)
In the rain
(We stood alone electrified)
I kissed you in the rain
(The sound of thunder in the night)
In the rain
(We stood alone electrified)
I kissed you in the rain
(The sound of thunder in the night)
In the rain
(We stood alone electrified)
I kissed you in the rain
