

Freiheit, When I Dance With You

Glamorous diamonds reflecting the moonlight tonight
Fairies and fireflies dancing through music and light
But the queen of all, the dream I call that's you
Ooh, when I look in your eyes

When I dance with you
When I dance with you

Love and devotion, jealousy fightings and tears
Things were exciting like thunder and lightning for years
But nobody could excite me like you do
Oh, when I look in your eyes

When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I just dance with you

And nobody killed me, thrilled me more than you
Ooh, when I look in your eyes

When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I just dance with you

(When I dance with, when I dance with)
When I dance with you
(When I dance with, when I dance with)
When I dance with you
(When I dance with, when I dance with you)
When I just dance with you
Oh, when I dance with you

(When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I dance with you)
When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I dance with you

When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I dance with you
Oh, when I dance with you

And nobody killed me, thrilled me more than you
Oh, when I look in your eyes

When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I dance with you
When I just dance with you

(When I dance with, when I dance with)
When I dance with you
(When I dance with, when I dance with)
When I dance with you
(When I dance with, when I dance with you)
When I just dance with you

(When I dance with, when I dance with)
(When I dance with, when I dance with you)
