

Frente!, So Mad

You're sleeping I'm not sleepy
And there's miles of night
I see something shining where there is no light
I just wanna bury it and throw away the weeds when they grow
What makes me so mad?
That scream to wake the birds
Is only my heart beating
What makes me so mad?
Translucent skin I'm looking in
I feel a ghost
You scared away and left the one i need the most
I just wanna bury it and leave my tears to sink in the grave
What makes me so mad?
The shouting in my room
Is only my heart beating
What makes me so mad?
The heartbeat calls my name
The patent on my thumb
The waiting and the dream
Have all turned into one
You're sleeping I'm not sleepy
And i wonder why
I love to think about the time before the lie
i didnt want to bury it
And lift my head up into the sky
What makes me so mad?
The bass drums through the floor
Is only my heart beating
What makes me so mad?
That scream to wake the birds
Is only my heart beating
What makes me so mad?
