

Frenzal Rhomb, Big Brother

I can't vote even though it's not my fault
I'd like to see what they believe
And if I try I just stop and wonder why
Those decisions make me sigh

Big Brother isn't watching
Big Brother's ignoring you

I know I should but never really understood
What these people meant to be
But I still try to vaguely have some grasp of it
So I can read between the lies
Those fucking lies
