

Frenzal Rhomb, Hate Is Not A Family Value

Who are you speaking for
Try to change the law
This is not for me
Try to believe it, can't understand this bullshit
Try to make friends with you
I'll give none to you
Rednecks by your side who hide behind your fucking lies Hate is not a family...

Preaching to the fools
??? redneck kills
You're not the only one
???
You must pay for it
Egg is to a sperm
You will never learn
The far reaching effects
I think at you with no regrets

Hate is not a family value hope your redneck son was an accident

Try to analyze
Which place to despise
It's written in your eyes
Take it back, take it back, take it for pride, now
What are you fighting for Ego creating war
Your hated to the core
When you create the fucking war
