

Frenzal Rhomb, Kaan Kaant

I never liked the way you're pushing me around
I couldn't stand it when you thought that you had found
Someone you're bigger than, I know it's just a front
You walk right up to me and whisper sweetly to me

Kaan Kaant
I'm gonna fight you

You think authority can knock me to the ground
I've come to realise it's not what you've found
Someone you're bigger than, I know it's just a front
You walk right up to me and whisper softly to me

Kaan Kaant
I'm gonna fight you
