

Frenzal Rhomb, Richer Than You

I don't care if you're bored and all alone it's 'cause you can't afford to buy some friends or speak by mobile phone
If you're wondering why everybody's stepping on your face
It's 'cause you don't have any money and you've been put in your place

Why don't you get down on your knees
I'm richer than you

I don't care if you're falling all over the place
Because we just can't stick around you And there's someone in your face
You're listening to everybody singing in diatone
You don't have time to wait around, that's why you're all alone
