

Frenzal Rhomb, Urban Myth

If I gave you another wish you'd be hanging out for married bliss waiting for your life to control you

Married bliss is an urban myth with concrete smiles and bloody wrists
I never thought it would come to this, did you?
Oh ho

Haven't you seen the end of it all One more fantasy before you fall who ho ho, who ho ho, who ho ho, who, ho ho, who ho hoo who ho ho

Sometimes it's best to pass
???
sinking to your boring point of view

???
???
I never thought it would come to this did you?

It's not cynicism but the same old contradictions a repeat of the same jaded mistakes
