

Frenzal Rhomb, Who Can You Trust

Why are you so conservative?
why have you got nothing to give?
you're so suspicious in every way why have you got nothing to say?

Who can you trust?
Why are you always in control?

We used to hide all your stuff away when I come round wanting to play you're never open in any way
why have you got nothing to say

We used to have so much fun before you learnt to use your gun you make me worry 'till I feel sick I have to run so far away
