

Freshwater Collins, Disable Me

I can't go on living my life like I'm not scared
Like I never had a reason to be afraid
Or wasn't disheveled by all the waves I've made

I tend to move myself alone
Break a pact between the weak and the strong
Or get wrapped inside the everlasting song

Sing at me when I close my eyes
You're touching me and I realize
I take a little stroll cross my yard
Get bitten by the dog
Clarity exists alone, beneath the shadow of my own position and condition to face alone

If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me

My life slows down to attempt to get in front of it
I don't know which way is which Or where I'm going or where it is or where I'm at
The foundation's shakin but I'm not forsaken
From my belated position some people claim I'm deficient
But I never try to pay them no mind
Most those people already died inside

Please please baby, don't betray me
I'll essentially lose if you turn around and hate me
Please please baby, don't betray me
I've essentially proved that the facts have not escaped me

If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me

I said please please baby
Please please baby
Please please baby
Please baby

I said please please baby, don't betray me
I'll essentially lose if you turn around and hate me
Please please baby, don't betray me
I've essentially proved that the facts have not escaped me

If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me
If you don't

And I beg you please
Don't do it
And I beg you please
If you don't disable me
If you don't disable me
