

Freshwater Collins, Remains Like This

I'm gonna live and live until my mind caves in Till my body explodes from the strain
I'm gonna scratch and claw and fight against any urge to resist myself in any way

And so what you can ask yourself is can you stand beside me or wait
It's a simple question to drag your brain on
And you can't escape its clutches for long

Still call me if it remains like this tomorrow
I believe I'm gonna have to make my getaway
If it remains like this tomorrow
I believe I'm gonna have to make my getaway

mmmm I've got something to say about scripted livin'
Living you life like you ain't never seen no yesterday
And I've done the same damn thing so goddamn long Sometimes I forget which side I'm on

So in the event that I slip and fall
At least I won't crawl away
You know I wanna run myself by puttin' you on

You can't escape its clutches for long

Still call me if it remains like this tomorrow
I believe I'm gonna have to make my getaway
If it remains like this tomorrow
I believe I'm gonna have to make my getaway

So in the event that I slip and fall
At least I won't crawl away
You know I wanna run myself by puttin' you on

You can't escape its clutches for long

Still call me if it remains like this tomorrow
I believe I'm gonna have to make my getaway
If it remains like this tomorrow
I believe I'm gonna make my getaway
If it remains like this
I believe I'm gonna have to make my getaway
If it remains like this
I believe I'm gonna make my getaway
