

Freya, Tiger

Tiger

Music: Freya / Rune Westberg

Lyrics: Freya

She's a tiger, she tracks down her prey
She's had many but they never stay all night
She's a flirt, she bats her eyes
At every girl and every guy in sight

She's a tiger and she's always hungry for more
She's not picky with who she chooses to adore
She eats them up; (she) spits them out
(So) you'd better take care, you'd better watch out
You'd better watch out for her

She's a tiger, she's got a basic instinct to kill
And in her fake fur she's all dressed up to thrill

She's a tiger and she's always hungry for more
She's not picky with who she chooses to adore
She eats them up; she spits them out
(So) you'd better take care, (yeah) you'd better watch out
You'd better watch out for her

She's a tiger - t-t-t-tiger, tiger

She's a tiger - she'll rip your heart out
She'll wear it as a charm, cause that's what she's about

She's a tiger and she's always hungry for more
She's not picky with who she chooses to adore, no
She eats them up; spits them out
You'd better take care, you'd better watch out
She eats them up; spits them out
You'd better watch out for her
(Cause) she's a tiger ...

She eats them up; spits them out
You'd better take care, you'd better watch out
She eats them up; spits them out
You'd better watch out for her
