

Freya, Total Control

Total Control

Music & lyrics: Freya

Your smile makes me smile
Your anger leaves me dry
Your praise makes me high
Your approval makes me fly

Your kiss keeps me warm
Your indifference leaves me torn
When we fight I am worn
You confuse me - my mind's a snowstorm, oh

You have total control over me
You, you are the remote control - I'm the TV
You are in complete command of my mood
You, you know I mostly feel good, oh

Your touch makes me glow
Your glance equally so
Your attention makes me grow
When you're gone time moves so slow

You, you have total control over me
You, you are the remote control - I'm the TV
You are in complete command of my mood
You, you know I mostly feel good, I feel good

You, you have total control over me
You, you are the remote control - I'm the TV
You, you are in complete command of my mood
You, you know I mostly feel good, I feel good
Feel good, oh, feel good, feel good
