

From First To Last, For The Taking

I've got the world crashing down down around my feet

Time is only temporary, this will not last forever

Before you take me home, there's just a few things I wanted you to know
Take a deep breath, its been an hour
And we've been walking for a million miles tonight
Don't fight the things I know you want to say to me.
So please, dont make this harder than it has to be.

Time is only temporary, this will not last forever

Before you take me home, please don't tell me what I don't wanna know.
Wipe your eyes dry, you'll see clearer.
The end of this is comming close to us, dont rush I've heard that line a million times from you and its true, the midnight sky has another shade of blue.

My heart is yours for the taking...for the taking.

The world is falling like a final curtain to my feet,
and the wish for your applause is taking over me
