

From First To Last, Two As One

Two as one, a slight addiction
Are we stuck, in the routine of this
But still more nights they come and go
The world keeps spinning all I know, I know
Its just you and me, two as one

For all the nights we missed
Fuck if I wasn't such a pessimist
This chapter could've played out differently
For all the nights we missed
Fuckk if I wasn't such a pessimist
This chapter could've played out differently

This chapter could've played out differently

Dig behind, the bones to get down to the core
And how do I get into such a tight locked door
How many times can I take that look
The best outcome that's from the worst, the worst
Of you and me

For all the nights we missed
Fuck if I wasn't such a pessimist
This chapter could've played out differently
For all the nights we missed
Fuck if I wasn't such a pessimist
This chapter could've played out differently

This chapter could've played out differently

Two as one
A slight addiction
Two as one
A slight addiction

For all the nights we missed
Fuck if I wasn't such a pessimist
This chapter could've played out differently
For all the nights we missed
Fuck if I wasn't such a pessimist
This chapter could've played out differently
