

From Zero, Free Without A Struggle

40 days, a simple waste of time
Count the days when we can be together again
I'm far away but you are in my head
You are all I think about you have all my time
You and I should be together but I will be denied simple life
So we say goodbye, so long, I'll see you again
Close your eyes and go to sleep
And dream about the day we'll be together again
Sacrifice so we can be free without a struggle
Looking back again, there's fortune in the wind
Some will say that I'm insane but I do it all for you
Contemplate this game, a simple life for fame
You are all I dream about you are on my mind
You and I should be together but I will be denied simple life
So we say goodbye, so long, I'll see you again
Close your eyes and go to sleep
And dream about the day
We'll be together again
Sacrifice so we can be free without a struggle
Just want you to know that I'm empty inside and I miss you like crazy
How long will you go, oh I don't really know but I'll try to get home
So please come back home, the struggle is holding me back
