

Front Line Assembly, Black March

Standing in the corner
Ordered it's time to go
Conflict in the making
Who has self-control?
It may just stand for reason
Only for the soul
The situation changes
But only for a while
You barely get to see it
Before you've fallen down
The only way to fight it
Is striking back again
Standing in the corner
Ordered it's time to go
Conflict in the making
Who has self-control?
So what's wrong? Orders
Standing in the corner
Ordered it's time to go
Conflict in the making
Who has self-control?
The situation changes
But only for a while
You barely get to see it
Before you've fallen down
The only way to fight it
Is striking back again
Planning in the trenches
Just to fight again
Standing standing
Standing in the corner
Ordered it's time to go
Conflict in the making
Who has self-control?
The situation changes
But only for a while
Ignorance or treason will be the final blow
The only way to fight this is taking back your will Planning in the trenches I've lost the will to kill
