Verse One: Lauryn Hill

Hey yo I, feel kind of melancholy people think they really know me

I keep a wrap about me while I'm driving daddy's Audi

I pay the toll fighting for my own soul

Cause the bourgeoisie type of mental sucks like a flat comb

But I be baitin the rebel base to bass distort the EQ

The devil's wishin they could send me back to Mogadishu

Cause I've been wild since I was a juvenile

Afro-centric profile, back when righteous rap was your style

Now kids are whylin so I ask the bad black

Boogie bandit, what's the damage, gimme the estimate then pray tell me when's the revolution will begin?

I turn on my TV I check out Farrakhan on CNN see

I'm like the phantom that's flying like the bird do

And things you never heard plus I come from the suburbs

Word to God, I heard you're acting kind of hard

And you got your skin scarred when they was shootin on the boulevard

[Lauryn Hill]

And when I rest my head is on a pillow

I turn on my TV, it's a dreadlock for FREE

Kill the gimmick

It's nonsense, it's no sense or value

a rapper, disaster, nobody ever told me that &quot;Roxanne, you don't got to work for money no more!!&quot;... and...

Back in the days I used to listen to Kool G Rap

Way back when before guns became gats and Run-D.M.C. used to ask Mary was she buggin?
I loved P.E., they kept me conscious of what I was saying
Afrika Bambaata, Poor Righteous Teacher
Got within myself so it made me a Five Percenter Say La-Di-Da-Di, UHH! we like to party but my jam was BDP, with My Philosophy
Say Grandmaster Flash, MC Melle Mel
Then LL Cool J came with Rock the Bells!
See I'm the one for the crew, like a Jew is a Jew
Like Apollo got the moon, like the men who got the blue
Like the Fu got the Manchu, Chaka got the Zulu
Hawaii got the Honolulu
I got the rap lieu, so skippedy-de-bop-bop you don't stop
You do the rock-rock from hip-hop through be-bop from be-bop to bee-bee

[Lauryn Hill]
